Dear Amedeo Bertolo,

Thank you for your letter from 9.4.84.

I intend to participate at the conference - and be a discussant on the topic mentioned by you - practice of self management.

But I don't know nothing about the arrangements for lodging etc. - I must have some appreciation concerning the expenses.

Please send me more information. All my best Avraham

Dear Avraham,

We are glad that you intend to participate in our conference. Could you please write also to Olivier Corpet (CICRA/Autogestions, 54 Boulevard Raspail, 750006 Paris, FRANCE) as he is in charge of coordinating the session on "The Practice of Self-Management".

We are enclosing here some information about hotels in Venice. As a rule we cannot offer free lodging to participants (our budget is already considerably in the red), but if you have serious problems we will try to help you..... and you can definitely have free meals in the restaurant we are setting up in the "social meeting place".

fraternal greetings

Rossella Di Leo
